Juanita's Retirement

There will be a cake and ice cream reception following today's worship service to celebrate Juanita on her retirement. Be sure to stay and congratulate her.

"I worked at State of Iowa Department of Human Services. I have been a social worker for almost 33 years, 32.9 months to be exact. The first nine years I worked as a Child Welfare case manager. For the past 23+ years I have worked with the disabled population. The favorite part of my job is meeting new clients and hearing their stories. I like the fact that they want our services, and most are grateful for the services in the home. We set up for their caregivers to get paid for providing assistance in the home which is supervised by DHS and visiting nurses. I travel 10 counties in the Eastern region of Iowa. From Dubuque to Keokuk." – Juanita Arellanos

We just want to make sure we have you in the directory.

Also, please fill out the church directory form to update your information. There are copies of the form on the table just outside the sanctuary doors. Thanks!

Summer Activities

Summertime often means that some activities are put on hold until the fall but at Elim Covenant Church that's not the case. We still have our worship service, Sunday School classes, SAS Bible Study, children's church and VBS, Wednesday night youth meetings, the monthly hymn sings, Game Knights, Daytime Trivia, and SPLASH meetings. There's always something going on. Check the weekly schedule in the bulletin or pick up a monthly calendar to see what all is happening. And don't forget, you can always review the bulletin and calendar on our website. And if you happen to miss a Sunday, you can view the service online. Have a great summer! See you in church!
